Silence

While on retreat I was immersed in silence. The Cistercian monastery was about an hour south of Tucson in the middle of a high mountain desert. It was such a quiet place, and the guests were asked to maintain silence on the grounds.

However, one night a man asked me if it was okay if we spoke. He is a counselor in an evangelical church in Tucson, and he made an interesting comment. He said, “Do you know what the Catholics have that the evangelical church lacks? Silence!” According to him, their services are filled with constant activity, music and talking. He said that their spirituality lacks silence. So he comes to the Cistercian monastery several times a year to be quiet.

We live in a world of constant activity. Yet we need silence in order to listen to God. How will you carve out a space for quiet during Lent?

In the morning I like to begin my prayer by simply being quiet for 15 minutes. It prepares my heart to listen to God. I also find it helpful to take a 20-30 minute daily walk which quiets my heart and re-focuses my life with God. These are little “desert escapes” which restore quiet in my life.

In the stillness I often become aware of the movements in my heart – fear or anxiety, thoughts or emotions that I might not otherwise be aware of. Being quiet is essential to finding peace. But we often avoid the silence out of fear of what it might say to us.

What are your Lenten resolutions? I urge you to set time aside for quiet. Listen to God’s voice in the SCRIPTURES and in DAILY PRAYER. You might read the daily readings for Mass and watch for a word or phrase that strikes you, then quietly repeat the word in your heart and speak to the Lord about the word.

Or perhaps you could commit yourself to attending DAILY MASS once a week. Or you might stop by the Church for 15 minutes of prayer after work. I encourage you to bring your family to the STATIONS OF THE CROSS at 6 PM Fridays which will be followed by a Fish Fry.

Maybe a Lenten resolution might be to memorize a psalm. Several years ago, I began to memorize my favorite psalms, like Psalm 46. It ends with a powerful invitation from God to find peace in the Lord’s almighty presence.

“Be still and know that I am God,
supreme among the nations,
supreme on the earth.”

In Christ, Fr. Steve

OLBH Parish News

Shrove Tuesday Breakfast

Lent is just around the corner and our parish has a tradition of celebrating Fat Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, in style. We will again offer a Shrovetide pancake breakfast in St. Joseph's Hall from on Tuesday February 21st from 6:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. There will be many options for self-indulgence, such as topping off your pancakes with whipped cream and chocolate chips. Come before work or school and celebrate Shrove Tuesday with us. Bring on the pancakes!

Mary's Widows

Mary's Widows will be gathering for a Valentines Coffee and Dessert celebration on Tuesday February 21st at 1:30 pm in St. Joseph's Hall. Bring a dessert to share. Please RSVP to Patty at 721-4281 by Sunday, February 19th.

Stations of the Cross with Fish Fry is Back for Lent

Join your fellow parishioners February 24th – March 30th to pray the Stations of the Cross at 6:00 p.m. Then come down for the Fish Fry from 6:30 - 8:00 p.m. If you or your group would like to lead Stations of the Cross, please sign up in the gathering area.

Stations of the Cross with Sprouts

Sprouts will be leading Stations of the Cross on Friday, March 2nd at 6:00 pm. Children will be signing up for reading parts during Sprouts on February 19th.

Spirituality of the Lector

Lectors at OLBH, please mark your calendars. There will be a Spirituality of the Lector Seminar on Monday, March 5th at 6 p.m. at OLBH. Fr. Steve will lead a reflection on the ministry of proclaiming the Word of God.

Mark your calendars for Sky VBS!

Sky Vacation Bible School will be held at OLBH this summer for PreK-5th grade children on June 25th - June 29th in the mornings.

Catholic Social Services 2012 Ash Wednesday Appeal

On Ash Wednesday, February 22, 2012 a collection is taken in parishes throughout the diocese to support the many programs and services provided by Catholic Social Services. We thank you for your sacrifice during these difficult economic times. We ask that you prayerfully consider your gifts, so together; we can continue to be instruments of God's redeeming love, serving those less fortunate and providing hope to those who are discouraged. If you wish, you may mail your donation directly to CSS, 918 5th St, Rapid City, SD 57701. Together, we can make a difference.

Cook and They Will Come

We provide the menu and food; you provide the help! We are looking for parish individuals, families or groups to prepare and serve a meal for our Sunday evening Life Nights. We have a few more dates still available. Please see the sign-up sheet on the counter in the gathering area. We provide the menu and food and then you come in to prepare the meal, serve the meal and clean up after the meal. We need your help for our Life Night to continue to be successful! If you have any questions, please contact Teresa Thompson or Jenny Scherr.

In the Local Community

Kiwanis Club Pancake Breakfast

The Kiwanis Club of the Foothills will host a Pancake Breakfast at the American Legion in Piedmont on Sunday, February 26, 2012 from 7 a.m. to 12:00 noon. The menu will consist of pancakes (all you can eat), eggs, sausage and biscuits and gravy. Adults $6.00, kids $4.00. All proceeds will benefit the youth programs in the Piedmont valley.

Contribution Statement Clarifications

There have been a lot of questions regarding the contribution statements. The fund that reads "Special Contributions" (on your statement) is aka Keller House aka New Rectory aka Springtime of New Possibilities. They are all part of the same pledge drive.

If you sent a check in with your pledge card, your contribution is not showing on your current statement. There was confusion on how we were recording the contributions. All of these have been corrected and I will be happy to produce a new contribution statement for you.

For any of you that indicated on your pledge card that you would be increasing your weekly or monthly contribution amount; your contributions are correct as stated, but the allocation may be miss a lined. If you would like me to reallocate the dollars I can do so.

Please notify me at your earliest convenience and I will ensure the proper adjustments are made and print you a new statement. I am sorry if this has caused any inconvenience.

Please contact me at 787-5623 (h), or 391-2788 (c) or at lorinda.collings@olbh.org

Life Teen Parents

This week we are taking a look at the Magisterium of the Church. Many people wonder if this is a place or a book or just another cool word Catholics made up. The Magisterium is the teaching authority of the Church entrusted to the Apostles and their predecessors, our pope and bishops. In this night, we looked at how the pope and bishops declare what has been revealed by the Holy Spirit so that we may experience true freedom in our lives. As a family, take some time this week to pray for our local bishop, Robert D. Gruss, and the intentions of the Holy Father, which can be found online. Here are a few discussion questions to keep the Life Night going at home:

1. Is it hard to be obedient to the teachings of the Church?
2. Do you struggle with being obedient at home? Why or why not?
3. Can you see the freedom that comes in following the teachings of Christ?
4. Where can we, as a family, seek answers to the teachings of Jesus that are most hard to follow in our parish?

Hope for New Life Ministry Update

An Inmate's Feedback

"[Our Lord] is sending us out around the world to tell all people everywhere the great things God has done for them, so that they too will believe and obey Him (Romans 1:5)". For those in our Diocese involved in the Hope for New Life (HFNL) Ministry, Paul's charge to carry the Good News to "all people everywhere" includes the men and women in the Pennington County Jail. Each Wednesday members of the ministry visit the jail to share the Gospel and our experience, strength, and hope with the inmates. In turn, we are richly blessed by our encounter. In the last year we have ministered to over 400 men and women. We like to think that through God's Grace we touch each life in a special way. One young man, who was recently transferred from the jail to the State Prison, wrote to us last month. "I think and pray for you guys all the time. I miss our weekly meetings and sharing the word. I've been in Sioux Falls for 2 weeks and have been going to church groups here... Thank you guys for helping me on my way to Christ and helping me to find my new path." It all adds up...one seed, one gentle affirmation, one act of love. To learn more about this outreach ministry, please contact Tony Galles (348-2301) or Mary Sperlich (342-9343).

New E-book Resources

The Communications Office of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops recently launched a new line of e-books! Resources on catechesis, spirituality, Catholic social teaching, ecumenism, and cultural diversity are now available in e-book format. Visit amazon.com, sony.com or uscgbpublishing.org or call (800)235-8722 for other available resources.

Packing Hope

The Rapid City Catholic School System is currently in the middle of its 5th annual Packing Hope fundraising campaign. The purpose this program is to answer Christ's call to help the poor and vulnerable by bringing hope to our hungry brothers and sisters. Feed Just One is a non-profit organization from Iowa that distributes highly nutritious food to starving children in the U.S.A. and around the world. With the money we raise through fundraising, we purchase meal ingredients in bulk from Feed Just One and then we combine the ingredients into individual packages that we ship to needy children. Our school and parishes have donated close to $15,000 annually, and we usually pack close to 140,000 meals (each STM/SES student is asked to donate $16). Please prayerfully consider donating to this cause. Donations, in care of STM Packing Hope, are being received on February 25th and 26th at Our Lady of the Black Hills or any time before or after that date in the STM Office, 300 Fairmont, RC, SD 57701. Also, we invite you to stop by the SES gym on March 30th and share in the process as we pack food. Thank you for your support and prayer.

Diocesan Social Justice Commission

"Catholic social teaching emerges from the truth of what God has revealed to us about himself. We believe in the triune God whose very nature is communal and social. God the Father sends his only Son Jesus Christ and shares the Holy Spirit as his gift of love. God reveals himself to us as one who is not alone, but rather as one who is relational, one who is Trinity. Therefore, we who are made in God's image share this communal, social nature. We are called to reach out and to build relationships of love and justice."

For the Ride Home

By Ted Bergh

Scripture

- ❖ It is I, I, who wipe out, for my own sake, your offenses; your sins I remember no more. Isaiah 43:25)
- ❖ Once I said, "O LORD, have pity on me; heal me, though I have sinned against you." (Psalm 41:5)
- ❖ For however many are the promises of God, their Yes is in him; (2 Corinthians 1:20)
- ❖ When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Child, your sins are forgiven." ...I say to you, rise, pick up your mat, and go home." (Mark 2:5,11)

Reflection

- ❖ Do you have something in your past that you would like to be free from but cannot leave behind?
- ❖ Is there anything that God may forgive or help you to be freed from so you are released from its hold on you?
- ❖ Have you asked to be forgiven and accepted the Lord's grace to forgive?

The Greek word for forgiveness is asphesis, which means to liberate, to release from bondage; it means remission of debt, guilt and punishment. It is used when the prison door is opened and the prisoner can go free.

We humans are called to become free, to free others, to nurture life, to look for the worth and the beauty in each and every one of us, and to make our world a beautiful garden where each person and each society can create a harvest of flowers and fruits, and so prepare the seeds of peace for tomorrow. 1
